Packaging Division Coordinator

We require:

- Excellent knowledge of packaging materials (cartons, designs and constructions of boxes, bottles, jars, tubes, blisters, closures etc.) and packing machines, ideally from pharmaceutical business
- Orientation in new technologies and trends in packaging industry
- Working experience in packaging industry required, min. 3 years
- Solutions oriented
- Project Management skills incl. financial analysis (experience with remote control project management and leadership)
- Organizational, communication and presentation skills
- Time management
- Ability to work individually, self-management
- High level of working attitude
- Technical University
- Advanced knowledge of English (upper-intermediate), other language considered as advantage

Your responsibilities:

- To play the role of Zentiva Division Coordinator for Packaging, member of Sanofi Packaging Excellence organization.
- Scope of responsibility: Packaging material and Packaging line.
- To Develop a Packaging Strategy (1st phase Zentiva, 2nd phase Generics Europe partner plants including External Manufacturing of Generics Division) in alignment with Sanofi Packaging Excellence strategy.
- To build and to lead the Packaging team in Zentiva context.
- To bring innovations into area of packaging, supporting the strategy of Sanofi Generics to focus on "differentiated"/"innovative" generics
- To lead and to coordinate serialization & tamper-evidence projects
- To standardize packaging over Generics manufacturing sites
- To build and manage a Packaging database with all relevant information

We offer:

- An opportunity to work for a successful worldwide company
- An opportunity to broaden your knowledge and expertise in your field
- An attractive compensation & benefits package

- Contract type: Fixed term contract up to 3 years
- Position opened from 14/04/2015
- Contact person : D. Szabova