

200 brands. 70+ countries. 3 placements. 18 months.

Are you ready for this?

Heineken International Graduate Programme offers you international work experience connected with your personal development and having fun.

This programme is your chance to make an impact from day one. Once on board you will enjoy responsibility, development opportunities, training, coaching, travelling and an environment that both stimulates intellectually and rewards high performance. You will spend 18 months in 3 different countries across the globe and gain working experience in one of these areas: Sales & Marketing, Finance, Supply Chain, HR, IT and Corporate Relations.

Moreover you will enjoy meeting new people from all over the world, developing yourself and having fun.

What can you expect from International Graduate Programme?

- An Induction Programme - A corporate induction will be organized prior to the commencement of your first assignment in September.
- International Experiences - Three international assignments, each lasting six months
- Career Development - A world-class training and support programme allowing you to manage your own career development
- Skills Development - You will gain functional skills, in addition to unique exposure to different cultures and ways of working
